

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.

+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.

+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.

+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

His horse leaped into the square, and instantly fell dead, crushing down his rider, and breaking his sword as he fell amid the broken ranks of the enemy. War Services of the Officers of the Royal Engineers.

[1] The Duke of Cambridge commanded the 1st Division of the Eastern Army throughout the campaign of 1854, including the battles of the Alma, Balaklava, and Inkerman (horse shot), and siege of Sebastopol (mentioned in despatches, received the thanks of the House of Commons, Medal with four Clasps, and Turkish Medal).

[2] Sir Frederick Edward Chapman proceeded on a special mission to Constantinople in Jan. 1854. Was employed surveying the positions at Bulair, Adrianople, and Buguk Tchekmadgie, previous to the arrival of the British Forces in Turkey; was attached to the 1st Division, and accompanied it to Bulgaria and Bulganak, and M'Kenzie's Farm; also present at the battles of Alma and Inkerman. Served throughout the siege of Sebastopol, during the early part of which he was Director of the Left Attack, and in the latter part he was Executive Engineer to the Forces. Was several times mentioned in official despatches, and received the Brevet ranks of Major, Lt.Colonel, and Colonel, CB., Medal with three Clasps, Officer of the Legion of Honor, Sardinian and Turkish Medals, and 3rd Class of the Medjidie.

[3] Sir Lintorn Simmons was employed for three years in the disputed territory on the N.E. frontier of the United States in constructing works for its defence and in making military explorations. Happening to be in Turkey in 1853 he was specially employed by Lord Stratford de Redcliffe on several important services; joined Omar Pasha in March 1854; escorted the new Governor into Silistria after the former one had been killed, and was present during part of the siege of that fortress; laid out and threw up the lines of Slobodzie and Georgevo on the Danube, having entire charge of the operation with 20,000 men of all arms under his command, a Russian Army of 70,000 men being within seven miles: was present during the occupation of Wallachia and had frequent charge of reconnaissances upon the enemy's rear. Commanded the Troops at Wanganui, and was instrumental in the capture of five Natives who had barbarously murdered and mutilated the family of a settler. The Chiefs of the District, who were nearly related to the culprits, assembled a war party of 700 men for their rescue, while the British force consisted of only 170 men, notwithstanding which Captain Laye ordered a Court Martial, composed of subalterns, for the trial of the murderers, and on their conviction had four of them hanged as soon as possible. The execution was followed by an attack upon the settlement by the war party, and which was repulsed with great loss. Governor Sir George Grey, in two despatches to Earl Grey, the Secretary of State for the Colonies, reported,—"that the firmness and decision with which Captain Laye acted had saved the country from serious and protracted rebellion." He received the special approbation of Her Majesty through Earl Grey in the following terms,—"I have it especially in command to assure you of the sense which Her Majesty entertains of the firmness with which Captain Laye acted upon the occasion of the attack of the Natives on the town of Wanganui, and of the gallant conduct of himself and the detachment under his orders on that occasion."
